SATURDAY, .....JULY 19, 1858.

Reading Matter on every page. The Canvass for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. In every portion of the State Revill seems to be gaining popularity. For a time we were in doubt as to whether he would get a better majority in two or three Congressional districts than was given to Col. Garrard last year; but recent information convinces us that there is no reason to doubt that he will gain on Col. G.'s vote in every Congressional district in the State. The party whose standard he bears in the contest is onstantly receiving accessions. Scarcely a neighborhood can be found throughout the whole State in which there are not gains to our ranks. Men who were willing to stand by and support the Know Nothing party, notwithstanding the fact that it was denationalized and had no signs of life, excepting in a few localities, would not follow its tricky leaders into the mongrel combination of factions, called the "People's Party." They were unwilling to be united in political association with those who would gladly improve the first oppornity to crush out their cherished institutions and rob them of their rights and their property. The mere fact of elevating to the Presidency an antiquated political quack, who never had sufficient talent nor merit to give him particular notoriety, is not, by them, regarded as a fair equiva ent for such a sacrifice. Some of the sapient leaders of the K. N. party sist that the brethren are bound by their oaths vote for McKee. They seem to forget that their ndidate repudiates their order, and that he nevthought it respectable enough to number ongst its members such a specimen of oratory, rality, learning, and political purity as he is .--They forget, too, that the K. N. order is dead, and American party. McKee does not even acknowledge himself a member of the American party, but insists that he is simply a Whig.

Well, this may be true. We have not forgotten that he once called himself a Whig-that he used his pretensions as a member of the Whig party to divide and defeat the party in the Sixth Congressional district-when it contained 3,000 Whig majority. We remember, too, that he was not considered orthodox on all the questions which constituted the Whig creed-that he was at one time designated as the leader of the "ignorance party." True, he complained of the latter position, and denied that he was justly entitled to it. But we have no recollection that his political friend who made the charge, ever withdrew it .-A characteristic discussion took place between him and his friend in regard to the matter, in which they satisfactorily slaughtered each other. The people seemed to look upon the contest with total indifference as to the result, and when it was end indifference as to the result, and when it was ended all seemed to be reminded of the story about the "kettle calling the pot black." We have only alluded to this for the purpose of showing that McKee has not always been regarded as consistent with his professions.

He may have been a Whig, but he is not one now, because there is no such party in existence. He is not a "K. N.," nor is he an "American," for the same reason. The K. N. order and the American party, or what little was left of them, were both slaughtered in Washington last winter by the Black Republicans, "with the advice and consent" of Mr. Crittenden and Mr. Marshall. On their ruins it is proposed to erect a "People's par-To all this McKee gives his assent, and thus as to what he really is. He is one of the People's party, a party which has been aptly designated, by one of our cotemporaries, as the "burgoo party." Its main ingredient is Black Republicanism. That Kentuckians should spurn such a mass of factions, organized under the name of party, is not surprising. Every one who votes for McKee will indirectly approve of the new organization.-Wherever he has spoken those who heard him will admit that we do him no injustice in classing nim as a member of the new party. Let those who yet hear him watch him closely on this point, and then say if we are not right. He defends the men who betrayed their own constituents, and prevented Kansas from coming into the Union as a slave State. But for the treason of Marshall and Underwood, of Kentucky, and of Davis, Ricaud, and Harris, of Maryland, Kansas would to-day belong to the sisterhood of States. Instead of being a territory, the resort of disorganizers and disunionists, (to say nothing of the thieves and murderers sent there by the emigrant aid societies) and the scene of turbulence and factious strife as she now is, she would long since have been happy and quiet in the enjoyment of an excellent State government, under a constitution appointed delegates assembled at Lecompton .-But there are men in the country who can only ive by agitation. Unfortunately some of them reached Congress from the slave States. They would rather see this country a thousand times damned than to see peace and quiet prevail .-Upon their heads let the curses of an indignant cople fall. While they are to be held in remembrance, let us not fail to properly rebuke those who support their treason. George R. McKee has voluntarily thrown himself under the proection of the traitors. In less than one month they may learn their fate in Kentucky by his dis-

Rankin R. Revill has now canvassed about niney counties and is still working faithfully. His gentlemanly bearing contrasts so favorably with the "coarse, scurrilous" manners of his opponent that he would have no difficulty in beating McKee, even if the latter had not made himself obnoxious to the people of Kentucky by joining the Black Republicans under their new name of People's party. Revill, on the full tide of a healthful and vigorous life, has passed his thirty-seventh summer .-Thrown upon his own resources at the age of fifteen, by the pecuniary embarrassments of his the world. He has overcome all obstacles, however, and as a member of the church, a private citizen, and a politician he stands without a blemish upon the pure white page of his public and private character. The office he now seeks is one with the duties of which he has been familiar for many years. Besides having a regular legal education, which acquaints him with the theory of the office of an appellate clerk, he has had years of practical experience in the clerk's office of Owen county. Appointed clerk there in 1846, he did his duty so well that he was elected to the same position by the people in 1851, and re-elected by them in 1854, by handsome and complimentary majorities. His office in Owen is a model office. He has a place for everything, and everything is in its place. He does not pretend to make such cloud-cleaving, spread-eagle speeches as his op ponent, the walking Rostra, but he does pretend to beat him writing and to know more about making and keeping records. That Revill will be elected we have not the shadow of a doubt. We have cheering news of his prospects and movements all over the State.-

[For the Louisville Courier.] Card from Jas. H. Thompson, of Owensboro.

OWENSBORO, June 4, 1858. Editors Louisville Courier:-Believing that you would not intentionally do a person an injustice by publishing what was incorrect, I have to claim ecting some false statements that have been put circulation in connection with my name. the errors and mistatements were promulgated through the columns of the Louisville papers, I the control of Miss Julia E. Willoughby. This consider them the proper channel through which the correction should be made. I have used the tle girls, whose ages range from four to twelve columns of my town paper for the above purpose, but, inasmuch as many of my friends never have gratifying sights we ever witnessed. Their rean opportunity of reading an Owensboro and as the "Courier" has a very large circulation throughout Southern Kentucky, I fall back upon which I can set myself right, and obtain an extended and unprejudiced hearing.

Sometime in the latter part of the month of March, 1858, I was in the city of Louisville, and was preparing to leave, for the purpose of returning home, when I was accosted in a very singular manner hy one of your very visigular.

manner by one of your very vigilant (?) police officers, who informed me that he had in his possession a warrant for my arrest, which he said was issued in February, 1857. He said that I was charged with having committed a theft at the time above mentioned. I expostulated, and demanded to be confronted with my accuser, but manded to be confronted with my accuser, but was informed that I should not be exposed to the public gaze, but should have an opportunity of explaining the matter, and making the thing all right if I could. Instead of having the above privilege allowed me, I was thrust into "Thomas Castle" to await examination on the following day. I was examined before his Honor and the "jail clique," and notwithstanding no evidence was produced against me, (as the sequel will show,) I was committed to jail in default of $500 bail. No man was ever examined before higher bail. No man was ever examined before Judge Johnston who established a clearer and better reputation for honesty than I did. I was charged with having been absent from the city, and being a fugitive from justice. But I introduced a num-ber of business men who stand fair and high among your business community, who swore, and brought dates to prove that I had frequently been that by a general dispensation from the great Pope and his cardinals and hishops, the faithful were absorbed from their oaths, and changed from members of the K. N. order into members of the warranted him in holding me over in heavy bonds to the construction. to answer at May court.

to answer at May court.

Now, Messrs. Editors, I think I can enlighten some of your unsophisticated and uniniatiated in regard to what this "public opinion" business means. A man away from home—as in my case—is arrested; he is among strangers and in the hands of sharks; Mr. W. K. Thomas says to his Hanor "You must hold that follow over, "its tree." Honor "You must hold that fellow over; 'tis true there is no proof against him, but you can hold him on the broad charge of being a "suspicious character, and we will make it all right among us." We who, pray? W. K. Thomas, R. F. Baird, Henry Thomas, etc., the crew who comprise the "Jail Clique." This may, perhaps, sound strange to some of the uninitiated, but it is nevertheless true that the municipal department of the city of Louisville is entirely ruled by Thomas city of Louisville, is entirely ruled by Thomas, Baird & Co., backed by a vivilant (!) and unprincipled police. If any of the "Clique" dare deny that the above statements are correct, I will of aggrandizing and filling the pockets of a lot of political lesches who are sucking the very life blood, as it were, from your city, so that they can with impunity say, "We are the governing power you have among you, and if you do not submit to what we dictate we will set our vigilant (?) police after you, and we will make it pay double by lock. after you, and we will make it pay double by lock ing you up, and reaping the profits of your incar-

Now for facts. Baird, Thomas & Co. received fifty cents per day for feeeding every man, woman or child who is confined in your county jail. This makes $3 50 per week. Now we all know that this will feed in a good and substantial manner any reasonable man. What does the fare given the prisoners consist of? About one-quarter of a pound of position results and the prisoners consist of? pound of unsifted musty meal, made into bread, from which the whole grains of corn have to be abstracted before it can be eaten, and one-half pound of offal meat, such as can be disposed of tne iron grating with an eager eye, for food to appease their famishing appetites, only to receive a plate of nauseaus stinking, putrid meat that had rendered the atmosphere sickening, and this not occasionally, but frequently. It occurred more than 20 times during my short stay. Now, upon a close and favorable calculation, the articles of food furnished the prisoners (if it were good and & Co., the sum of forty cents per day, or $2 50 per week clear profits upon eacn person conined in jail. This, with a vigilant (?) police, you will discover, would make the "Louisville" jail stock" command a premium among money brokers. As I said before, I was h bonds without any cause, except your readers can gather a reason from the foregoing statements— which I am prepared to prove; for I have not made one statement that I can not substantiate, and will do so if called upon. I have, gentlemen, always been a very active and energetic member of the so-called "American party," but I must say that the city of Louisville is now ruled and governed by a set of political bullies—men who stand at the very bottom of the scale of common decency and morality; I, of course, make some excep and the "jail clique" in general, is a mockery of "clique" profess to be the head and front. But let a stranger be arrested, no matter how in-nocent, and let him commit the great sin of introducing a Democrat, as a legal adviser, into the "wiqwam" of Thomas & Co., and he is a doomed man. A more unprincipled and worthless set of police than now exist in Louisville never disgraced the fair fame of any city. And yet these men seek to be reinstated in power, in August next. It is time that the good citizens of your county should inquire into these matters, and if the grand jury of Jefferson county will send an the grand jury of Jefferson county will send an investigating committee to the jail, provided with pitchforks, they can dig up cart loads of putrid beef and hog hearts, which have been thrown out into the prison yard by the inhabitants of the jail in self defense. I herein attach a certificate which you will recognize in my case. I hold others from members of the court and "grand jury," which I do not deem necessary to publish, but which I can produce if called upon. At the time the offence was said to have been committed I was in the town of Hardinsburg. From the above you will see how the matter stood in your Circuit Court. Now, what course can I pursue for redress? My prosecutor is worthless, for I can produce a number of responsible witnesses who will swear that they would not believe him upon oath, and the action of the "grand jury" goes to show how he stood there. The "jail clique" are not come-at-able, and the only recourse I have is to let the public know how they are hoodwinked and bamboozled by a set of political and unprincipled men who squander the funds and unprincipled men who squander the funds of the county for their own aggrandizement. I undertake to say that the criminal docket, of the county of Jefferson, never contained as many cases, with as few convictions, as that of the term just closed. How is it to be accounted for? The county pays the expense and the "jail clique" squanders the money. Begging pardon for my intrusion upon your valuable time and space, I remain yours respectfully, JAS. H. THOMPSON.

brief paragraph mentioned. The exercises began on Monday. That day was mainly devoted to the primary department, under department comprises nearly sixty interest gratifying sights we ever witnessed. Their recitations in geography, arithmetic, history, etc., were far superior to the expectations of any of the spectators. Some of them, only six or seven years old, showed a proficiency in their studies, not often excelled by the senior classes in female colleges. Their dialogues, their vocal entertain ments, and their performances on the piano, all so far surpassed their years as to call forth from the audience the liveliest demonstrations of admiration and surreise on and surprise.

Ou Monday night a vocal and instrumental con-cert was given by the pupils of Mrs. Martha Ham-ilton. There was a large crowd in attendance, and all seemed to be delightfully entertained. and all seemed to be delightfully entertained.

Tuesday was chiefly devoted to the examination of the classes under the control of Mrs. Helen L. Hubbard. Their examination gave the highest degree of satisfaction to their parents and friends. The pupils of Prof. C. O. Edelman gave a concert on Tuesday night. Their performance gave positive evidence that they had been instructed by a master of the science of music.

Wednesday was appropriated to the examination of the first class, which had been chiefly taught by Mrs. Hubbard and the Principal I.

taught by Mrs. Hubbard and the Principal. It would require too much space to notice in detail the examinations of the various classes. It is sufficient to say that the examinations were thorough; that they were not made upon lessons in which the pupils had been specially drilled for the occasion, and that there were no failures.

On Tuesday, the last numbers of the news called the "Rose Bud," and "The Violet," by the girls in the primary department, were read, and on Wednesday the numbers of the two papers called the "Offering" and "The Wild Flower" edited by the higher classes, were read.

On Wednesday night Miss Willoughby's pupils gave a vocal concert, which was followed by the "Fairy Court," rendered by the pupils of Mrs. Thursday, the commencement day proper, af-orded a most agreeable entertainment to the crowd of spectators. After the graduates had read their addresses, C. M. Matthews, Esq., chair-man of the Board of Trustees, presented diploman of the Board of Trustees, presented diplomas to the graduates. Mr. Sumner then addressed the graduates in a brief, but appropriate speech. Mr. Matthews then presented to Mrs. Sumner a beautiful silver gobiet, as a testimonial of regard from Miss Julia M. The Crops. The Indianapolis Journal says: The latest crop news does not appear as favorable as that given by us some days ago. In this vicinity farmers complain of light wheat and oats, and say that not over one-third of a crop will be gathered. A blight has seized it, which has utterly ruined a large portion of that which did not ripen for the first cutting. A correspondent in Randolph county says:

The prospect as to the yield of this crop, never too flattering for the present season, has undergone a striking change within a very few days.—Some sort of blight seems suddenly to have seized the straw, at once killing it, and putting any further growth or development out of the question. The best and earliest wheat is too far advanced to be much effected, but much of the lyanced to be much effected, but much of the latest will not be cut. Intermediate pieces will afford a grain more or less damaged—light, chaffy, inferior.

"But what is more singular, as being almost unheard of before, the oats that have all along promised so finely, and on the prespect of a heavy op of which we were felicitating ourselves as a impensation, to some extent, for an inevitably light corn crop, appears to be literally killed al ready by the same cause. One man said, a few days ago, that he would gladly give his whole crop for the amount sown. Another said that his oats field stunk so that it was very unpleasant to in-hale the atmosphere in their neighborhood. I have made considerable inquiry, and find the complaint general. An observing citizen, en-gaged in the produce trade, came home yester-day, traversing several counties in Ohio. He gives the same account of the oats, so far as he saw. Many of the fields were already blown with the dead, dry staw. He regards the oats as about

The reasons which he urges in support of his preposterous claims are both laughable and scandalous. He never joined the Know Nothings,

Go to Langue — All Tight.—Henry Lemon and Mrs. Lemon, his wife, were presented for getting tight and noisy, and annoying the neighborhood. Both get drunk, and both fight like cats and dogs. She has three children to take care of, by her first husband, this one being her second. He was held to bail in $200 for three months, and the woman to bail in $200 for three months, and the woman was let off on promise. The court then concluded to squeeze the Lemon a little tighter by holding him to $100 bail to answer indictment for vagrancy. DRUNK AND ABUSIVE.—Tim Ryan, sir, was pre-sented for drunkenness and abusing his wife, who is said to be a clever, hard working woman. She wouldn't make any complaint against the brute, who, no doubt, continually ill-treats her. In ad-dition, it was stated that he has relatives who dition, it was stated that he has relatives who abuse her, and she has been known to feed the horses and cleanse the stable. #### Gen. Charles Lee.

Some time since it was mentioned in the New ork papers that a historical paper was forth-oming, which would fix upon one of the generals f our revolutionary army a charge of treason. The paper was recently read at the New York Historical Society, and the general against whom the accusation is made, is Gen. Charles Lee, the same who aspired to the command of the army, and signalized himself by his vindictive enmity to Washington. The following description of this memoir is given in the New York Evening Post. The proofs against Lee seem to be conclusive, and are consistent with his passionate, vindictive and protected to the control of the cont

Lee came to America in 1774, and purchased an estate in Berkley county, Virginia, where he became intimate with General (then Colonel) Horatio Gates. He early professed to sympathize with the patriots, and anticipated the supreme command of the Continental army. This ambition was frustrated by the election of Washington, whose talents and military skill he constantly disparaged. In June 13, 1776, he was appointed tunes of the American cause, and that all would

The Democracy had an encouraging meeting at Schweind's Exchange last night. They met for the purpose of organizing the First and Second The organization was effected by electing Col. John Doup, President, C. B. Townley, Elisha Metcatf and Christopher Heeling, Vice Presidents, Pat. Hawes, Joseph Croxton and Phi lip Tompert, Secretaries, and J. W. Osborne,

A committee consisting of J. L. Heming, John Beeman and Dr. J. Metcalf was appointed to preare a constitution and by-laws for the club.-They are to report at the next meeting. A committee of thirteen for each ward was also ap pointed to canvass the two wards and bring out the full vote at the August election. The last named committees were made up of volunteers. who enrolled their names and agreed to serve so The club was addressed by Col. Thomas H

Holt, Dr. Mat Pyles, Dr. Alexander Forsyth and Patrick Hawes, who made first rate speeches before the meeting adjourned. Aiter its adjourn ment, Judge Joyes was called upon, and at the door of the hall made a capital speech. His clear and sonorous voice bore his calm and sensible thoughts to the ears of a good crowd, who paid profound attention to what he said.

The organization of these two wards complete one half of the city. The same kind of an organcation was effected a few evenings ago in the organize the other half of the city, consisting the Fifth and Sixth, and the Seventh and Eighth Wards. This, we understand, will be done early next week.

Things are thus working well. In these organizations the jail clique will find no comfort. he Democrats ask only a fair election and the full vote of the city. If their organization shall bring out a full vote and they are beaten, they will sub mit to their fate like patriots. They do protest, however, against not being allowed to vote, and against an apathy which keeps their own party from voting. The object of the organization now going on is to bring out the full vote of the city, no matter what party that vote shall show to be in power. The object is, therefore, a laudable one, and commends itself to the approval of every good citizen, whether he be a Democrat, an American or a Know Nothing. Of course it does not meet the approval of the Jail Clique, who want to keep all the fat offices among themselves, and who only want enough votes polled to elect their own dear selves. They are opposed to anything like a full vote of the city, for they well have the fore and full voice of this city are selves. against an apathy which keeps their own party ow the free and full voice of this city expressed at the ballot box, would prevent every one of them from holding office one moment

The first volume was issued from the press in December last, so that the publishers have put out a volume it will not be long before the whole series is com- found. pleted. And when it is completed it will be a great store house of political knowledge to which every one should have access. It will embrace in a few volumes, which may be had at a reasonable price, the cream of what is now spread over hundred folio volumes of Congressional debates which cannot be had at a less cost than $500, if they can be obtained at all.

The present volume is full of interesting matter particularly valuable at this time. The questions the Union as a slave State, and the celebrated tariff of 1824, are discussed in the 7th volume .-As there is a new political organization, com posed of Know Nothings and Black Republicans, now assuming a stand upon one branch of the Missouri question, in conjunction with the tariff of 1824, while the national Democracy intend to remain where they are, arrayed against the coalition and its free soil and protective tariff platform, it will be well for both parties to buy this volume and read the debates which sprang up in the origin of these questions. The volume before without the refuse and cumbersome matter. For sale by F. A Crump, 4th street.

ARREST AND EXAMINATION FOR MURDER.-The town of Milton, Ky., just opposite Madison, has been considerably excited of late by the arrest and examination of parties implicated in the murder of Connoway, whose body had been found in the woods. We published in the Courier last week, that the body had been discovered with gun shot wounds, and it was the general impression that he had been murdered.

The authorities of Milton have been dilligently prosecuting an investigation of the bloody deed. and had several persons arrested and examined on the charge, or complicity in the murder. Dur ing the whole of the week the examination of a young man of the name of Roberts has been rogressing. It appears that thus far no direct proof has been adduced, though some threats of vnch law had been made. The examination has elicited the fact that deceased and accused had both been addressing the same young woman who had in joke told Roberts that to succeed with ner, he must first get the deceased out of the way The same young woman also testified to hearing three shots in the woods in the direction of the spot where the body was found.

Noble Conduct.—During the crisis last fall, Messrs. West & Caldwell, Dealers in dry goods used in the hat and cap business, at 52 Broadway, were compelled to suspend. They forthwith called a meeting of their creditors, and laid a statement of their affairs before them. A committee was appointed, who, after a thorough investigation, unanimously recommended that the creditors accept fifty cents on the dellar. This was with like unanimity acceded to, and the whole matter closed, and the firm discharged.

On the first day of July instant, the creditors each received a printed circular, stating that the assets had turned out much better than there was reason to expect when the compromise was made found as stated, and amounted in the aggregate to over $36,000, not one cent of which wer under any legal obligation to pay.

On Tuesday the company put the first ten miles on the south side of the river to contract, and accepted the bids of Messrs. Connelly, Lauthan and Burke for sections 19, 20, 21, 22 and 23, and the bid of Mr. McGuire for sections 15, 16, 17 and 18; the work to be completed by the 1st of April next. The contracts have, as we learn, been let at reasonable figures, and upon terms advantage

Frightful Mortality at Sea.

Nearly a Whole Ship's Crew Swept off by Yell Fever-Heroic Conduct of the Captain's Wife. It seems the fever made its appearance among the crew of the ill-fated ship the second day after leaving port, in its most virulent form. The ordinary remedies were tried, but were found of little effect to stay the progress of the disease. One after another died, and their remains were consigned to the deen by the anytycors.

a noise. As it might have been on a private bust we didn't inquire into the matter. ENGELN'S BATH HOUSE.-The bath house Second street, corner of Guthrie, conducted by John Engeln, is open for the accommodation of the public. Baths, warm and cold, can be obtained. This is one of the best establishments which arose upon the admission of Missouri into of the kind in the West, and worthy of patron-

> Vicious Dog .- Mr. Dolfinger, who lives on Green street, below Fourth, has a vicious dog, Yesterday he sprang out at a lady, seizing her by the arm, and bit her severely. We are told this is not the first instance of the brute's propensity for attacking passers by. If the owner won't, somebody else ought to kill the dog.

FINE ICE.-The finest ice we have seen this sea. son was sent to us vesterday by W. P. Hahn, the "Ice King" of Louisville. It is from Conneaut us gives the cream and spirit of these debates Lake, and arrived on the barge Lilly Dale, on Wednesday. It is upwards of 12 inches thick, clear as crystal, and colder than ice water. Of course he treats us cool, because he thinks we fer with dsseases of the Throat and Lungs-We are equested to say, that owing to the number of invalids who have written to Dr. Flower, and are on Dr. F. has returned to Louisville, Kv., and will renain at his office, on the corner of Centre and Green, during the summer months. He is desirous of establishing a permanent office in this ity. His peculiar theory is rapidly gaining for him a successful practice. He offers as usual, onsultations free to all.

PROGRESS OF FREE LOVE .- The wife of a coffee ase keeper in this city, pretty and frail, who asn't been married much more than a year, latediscovered "passional affinities" for some one ot her husband-and in accordance with free love progress, claiming "the right to bear children by whom she chose," she is now off with the old love and on with the new, and whither gone her husband knoweth not. He whose house is not home, who is married yet hath no wife, has women are angels, and bad ones worse than the

MR. THOMPSON'S CARD .- In another column we publish a card from Mr. Jas. H. Thompson, of Owensboro, in which he details the ontrageous treatment to which he was subjected in this city a short time since. We ask the attention of one readers to it. The card has been in our possession several weeks and should have appeared long since, but when it was received our columns were unusually crowded, and the manuscript being placed in our desk it was overlooked until our attention was called to the matter a few days ago It may be proper to state that Mr. Thompson i indorsed to us, by a number of the best citizens of Owensboro, as a gentleman of honor and integrity, and all who know him regard him as an injured and innocent man

Howard's Ship Yard .- One of the most com plete establishments in the West is the extensive ship yard of Messrs. D. & J. Howard, of Jeffersonville. They have recently added a new mold and drafts, while the lower story is fitted up with all the requisite machinery for a ship yard and boat builder. They have in use circular saws, amper, facing machine, as well as the most comete saw mill, and a vast pile of the best of oak n the West, as well as the most prompt and reliable, and we hope they will have their hands full this summer and fall, despite the hard times.

John Gill, on Chestnut street, between Eighth and Ninth streets, was entered by three burglars about 3 o'clock on Friday morning, who ransacked the building. They robbed Mr. Gill's pants of a small sum of money, while he slept, and carried off a small desk, which they, doubtless, supposed contained valuables. This they broke open or the street, and the noise they made arrested the attention of some one whose appearance caused them to vanish. The desk had nothing of value in it. A quantity of matches were scattered around by the rascals. They can get them, and nore, too, if they will call again. They made heir entrance through the window, and were so oiseless as to awaken no one in the house .-They came like burglars-so departed.

Some rascals, perhaps those whose exploit we publish, attempted to enter a residence on Market street, between Sixth and Seventh, on Thursda morning, but the barking of the watch dog arous ed the inmates, and the evil visitors left. Lool out for burglars, and keep your guns loaded.

LIFE LIKE PORTRAITS .- At Hegan & Escott's we find on exhibition some half a dozen portraits of Mr. Jacobs, an artist who has lately taken rooms at the National Hotel. Some of them are of wel known citizens, and are excellent likenesses, re cognizable on the instant. Among the most pro ninent are Mr. Bishop, of the National, and Mr. Dunning, clerk of the steamer Jacob Strader .-Mr. Jacobs has adopted a style altogether new, not only in the manner in which he paints his ortraits, but also in the manner with which he ces them before the public. The foundations of his pictures are laid by means of the photographic

With the aid of the powerful camera at Mr Shaw's Gallery he throws his portrait at once on the canvass, the size of life, and thus gets his likeness complete-light, shade and outline with astonishing accuracy. His picture thus truthfully commenced, he finishes from the sitter, and colors to the life. A feature of Mr. Jacobs' portraits is the splendid plate glass with which they are covered, giving them a mellow, liquid effect, extremely gratifying to the eye. As we have been pleased by these portraits, we advise our readers to visit them also and experience

St. John's Church, on Jefferson street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, is open every Sunday at 1034 A. M., and 8 P. M., for divine service. Rev. J. S. Large, Rector. Seats all free. The public are invited to attend.

Law of Baptism.—A discourse upon this subject will be delivered by Rev. W. W. Everts, in the Walnut street Baptist Church, to-morrow night, commencing at 8 o'clock. The public are invited.

NOTICES. THE SKELETON SKIRT."-Martin & Penton, Fourth street, have received the agency for the sale of "the skirt," which for lightness, flexibility,

From the Evening Mirror. GENERAL DEBILITY.—We would advise all who may be afflicted with general debility, to try McLean's Strengthening Cordial. It is certainly a valuable remedy; many of our friends have tried it, and they recommend it very highly as a tonic and alterative. It is very pleasant to take.

Every country merchant, in laying in his supplies, should be sure to take some of this Cordial. NOTICES.

Labor-Saving Machine.—The most important to the public generally is a Washing Machine, manufactured by R. D. Porter & Co., of this city. These machines have been tried by a large num ber of our best citizens, and have given satisfac tion to every one who has used them. The ma tion to every one who has used them. The machines are cheap, simple, durable, and not liable to get out of order. A child of ten years can undestand and work one of them. It is a great saving of time and labor; it does not rub off the buttons, or injure the finest fabric in washing; it will wash anything from a pocket handkerchief to the largest size quilt, and do the work quick, and do it well. In proof of the above, we can refer to a large number of highly respectable persons who now have the machine in use, and, in addition to this give any one the prejuges of trying the machine in the prejuge of the prejuge of the prejuge the prejuge of the prejuge the prejuge of th this, give any one the privilege of trying the machine before purchasing.

GREAT CURE AFTER THE PHYSICIANS HAD FAILED RUSSELLVILDE, OHIO, Jan. 10, 1855.—Dr. C. M. He looked as much like a dead man going the same transmitted as a compare him to no avair. he tooked as much like a dead man go-ing about as anything we can compare him to.— His disease appeared to be an overflowing of the gall. With hard persuasion we prevailed on him to try your Bitters, with the promise to him, if it did no good, we would charge him nothing for it, provided he took six bottles according to the direc-tions which he has done and is your article. tions, which he has done, and is now entirely cured, and has become a well man. This curhas created a great sale in the neighborhood."

Respectfully, EDWARDS & BROWN.
Ask for Hooflands's German Bitters, and take nothing else. See that the signature of C. M. Jackson is on the wrapper of each bottle.— These Bitters are manufactured by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418 Arch street, Philadelphia, and are sold by druggists and storekeepers in every town and village in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, and South America, at 75 cents per bottle.

A word of such testimony is of more weight among the best classes of the country than volumes from unknown sources: from unknown sources

GIRARD House, Philadelphia, May 7, 1856. Prof. Charles DeGrath: I freely give it as my opinion that your "Electric oil" is among the most wonderful remedies of modern times. At the earnest request of a lady who alieped she had been relieved of a most painful affection by its use, I was induced to try a bottle, though at the time of purchasing I fully believed it to be a quack medicine and a catchpenny humbug. But a be a quack medicine and a catchernly humanity.

trial convinces me that it possesses a magic power, and its use will prove a blessing to suffering humanity.

I recently took a cold from sleeping in damp sheets, and my neck became so much swollen and painful that I could not turn my head.

After using, without success, everything prescribed by my physician, I last evening tried your Electric Oli.

This morning I am well, the relief having been as combete acit was instanceous.

News from Leavenworth.
St. Louis, July 9.—Our dispatches from Leavenworth 6th, by U. S. Express to Boonville, say venworth 6th, by U. S. Express to Boonville, say that the special messenger named in a previous dispatch, reached the Fort yesterday with the official orders for General Harney, which went forward this morning per Captain Simpson. The orders direct the following movements:

Eight companies of the second dragoons, Majors Phelps and Reynold's batteries artillery, the fifth, tenth, and probably seventh regiment of inantry remain in Utah. The fourth artillery and five companies of the second dragoons occupy the district of the Platte. The first cavalry is directed to remain on the plains as late as practicable, and make excursions among the Indians, and keep them in subjection. The sixth or seventh Infantry proceed to Oregon, in view of recent intelligence from the Pacific, of Indian hostilities. Majors Hunt and Harris' batteries are ordered to Majors Hunt and Harris' batteries are ordered to return to Fort Leavenworth. The corps of engineers now with the battalions of the sixth infant-ry are to return to West Point, after completing the work of opening the road to Camp Scott via Cheyenne Pass.

The troops which accompanied Capt. Marcy from New Mexico return to that department. Brigadier General Harney is ordered to return to St. Louis, and assume the command of the de-partment of the West, unless he may have received intelligence of forcible opposition by the Mormons to the army now in Utah, in which case he is empowered to send forward the whole of the reinforcements, and continue with them to Utah, or return to take command of his department, as he may prefer. Lieut. Colonel Crossman and Captains Turnly and Page are assigned to duty in Utah. Capt. Hancock is ordered to proceed with the regiment of infantry to the Pacific. The officers of the Topographical Engineers, hitherto assigned duty with the troops in Utah, are ordered to report to General Johnston. The recruits and officers destined for corps now in Utah, proceed to benchmark destined for cops how in Chan, proceed to that department. Assistant Adjutant General Beuill remains attached to the staff of General Harney. The paymaster farthest in advance will go through with his funds to Utah. The other remains in duty in the department of the Platte. The force assigned to this department is expected to keep assigned to this department is expected to keep assigned to the processing open between Misto keep communication open between Mis-uri and Utah, and is under the orders of Brigadier General Johnston. An express arrived from Utah yesterday. The dates are old, and contain nothing additional. General Harney was at Fort Kearney on the 29th of June. Later from Mexico. New Orleans, July 9.—The bark Brilliant has arrived, with Vera Cruz papers of the 26th. Business is prostrate. Vomito prevails among the soldiers. The citizens are healthy. There was an earthquake on the 18th in the City of Mexico; persons were killed.

The British and French Ministers advise the payment of the forced loan under protest. For-syth opposes it, and demands his passports. He Vidaurri and Garza are marching upon the capital. Echagarauy retreated to Jalapa. Osollos is shut ap at San Luis. Salas has been recalled by Zuluoga. Contributions are stringently enforced Vucatan dates to the 30th have been received. The Government has imposed a duty of 50 cents per bbl. on foreign and home flour, from the 1st of ugust. The earthquake was felt at Minititlan.

From Washington. Washington, July 9.—Com. Page, who is designated to the command of the naval force to be dispatched to Paraguay, has had an interview with the Secretary of the navy on the subject. That Government is said to have three effective war steamers. The fort is of great power, under French engineers, and commands the navigation of Paraua river. Hence it is deemed important that the United States shall be prepared for all possible emergencies, the President having been clothed by Congress with ample power to enforce all the just demands of our Government.

The Secretary of the Interior left this evening for Mississippi. He will be absent about a month.

Sailing of the Persia. New York, July 7.—The steamer Persia took out upwards of two hundred passengers, and a half million in specie. Among her passengers are: Mons. Belly, who goes out to make arrange ments for his Nicaraguan canal project; Mr. Ray-mond, editor of the Daily Times; Charlotte Cush man; John Van Buren and daughter; G. P. Put nam, and J. W. Field, of Boston; Mr. and Miss Jones, and Miss Howe, of Providence. Efforts are being made to start the Collins line of steamers on the 17th inst., provided the government will agree to the proposed change of the ous to Southampton, otherwise the eastern termin

Final Sale of Lots IN KENTUCKY CITY!

On Monday, 27th of September, 1858. WILL commence the second and final Sale of Lots in this growing and most interesting YOUNG CITY.

The Trustees, in announcing this sale, feel warranted in assuring the public that at no point in the West can there be found a better chance for safe and profitable

Is located on the east bank of the is located on the east bank of the Mississippi river, twenty miles below the mouth of the Ohio river, at the first chigible highland, and in point of fact, being the mouthof the Ohio river; surrounded by a high, beatthay, and fertile country, rapidly growing in was he had population, with a salubrious climate, generous, tiberal and enlightened society. There wanted but a +1 further feature to make this the most commanding point on the "great Father of Waters"—this want was an uninterrupted and general outlet to the interior, so as to accommodate the interchange of commodities. That want is now fully met by the established system of RAILROADS, which has fixed Kentucky City as the center of a net-work of railroads stretching out and affording connect-ions in all directions with the interior and with the cities and lakes of the North and East, and ramifying through-out the South and West. ions in all directions with the interior and with the cities and lakes of the North and East, and ramifying throughout the South and West.

That the public may not be led off by suspicions that this is a mere city upon paper, we request you to enquire—to come and see for yourselves.

See the Map—Kentucky City is the northern terminus of the Great Mobile and Ohio Railroad—460 miles long. See also our railroad connection by Union City and along the Nashville and Northwestern Railroad via Paris and Clarksville to Nashville, 170 miles. Also, by Kenton and along the Memphis and Ohio Road to Memphis, about 160 miles. Also via Jackson, Tenn., Holly Springs, Canton and Jackson, Miss., to New Orleans, 500 miles. Also via Corinth, thence along the Memphis and Charleston Railroad to Tuscumbia, Huntsville, Chattanooga, Knoxville and the East, and with Atlanta and Savannah, Georgia. Also by the Fulton and Texas Railroad via Little Rock, through to Arkansas and Texas to the Pacific Ocean. ific Ocean.

STEAM FERRY PACKETS ying to and fro with Cairo and the Illinois Central ailroad to Chicago and the whole northwest. Intelligent, enterprising and practical men who will ome and see and investigate in person, will be conneed that the extraordinary commercial advantage id facilities of railroad and steamboat transportation sessessed by Kentucky City secures to this point requi-ces for manufacturing and commercial purposes, which ust, of necessity, cause it speedily to become the grea-termediate city between the NORTH and the SOUTH intermediate city between the NORTH and the SOUTH, at which the productions and manufactures of each section will be concentrated for sale, or to be exchanged for those of the other.

The Hon Post-Master General, in a recent report, says: "No man can look at the map of this country without his eye finally resting on the mouth of the Ohio as the center of population and commerce of the United States."

as the center of population and commerce of the United States."

The sale is to be made without reserve and in good faith, and there will always be a reliable gentleman on the ground whose pleasure and duty it will be to give all needful information, and answer all written or oral interrogatories. Then let no one permit himself to be led off by rumor, when the facts are so accessible to all.

Sale to commence Monday, September 27th, 1858, and continue until all the Lots, numbering upwards of four hundred, are sold.

TERMS OF SALE: From ten to twenty-five per cent, cash in hand, dependent upon the amount purchased; for the residue, a credit of one and two years, with interest.

McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment,
The best Liniment in the world for man or benat.
Another remarkable cure performed by McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. Read for yourselves:
Thomas Ford, a blacksmith, living near Cass avenue, on Tenth street, had a horribie running sore on his foot. He tried various Liniments, Salves, &c., but could do it ac. good. He despaired of ever being able to work at his trade again, because he could not bear any weight on his foot; and by one small bottle of McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment, he is now perfectly cured.

Theumatism, paralysis, neuralgis, bruises, sprains, stiffness in the joints or muscles, swellings, sore throat, earache or toothache, wounds, fresh cuts, sores, burns, scalds, pains, &c., yield to the "magic" intuence of this wonderful Liniment.

For Horses and Cattle It is an infallible remedy for chafes, galls, scratches, vracked heels, lameness, spavinsweeny, splint, fistula, bruises, swellings, wounds, rattle, snake bites, and various other diseases which animals are liable to from injuries or accidents.

BY PHILIP P. COOKE. I loved thee long and dearly,
Florence Vane;
My life's bright dream, and early,
Hath come again;
I renew in my fond vision,
My heart's dear pain,
My hopes, and thy derision,
Florence Vane.

The ruin lone and hoary, The ruin old,
Where thou didst hark my story,
At even told—
That spot—the hues—Elysian O'rsky and plain—
I treasure in my vision,
Florence Vane.

Thou wast lovelier than the roses In their prime;
Thy voice excelled the closes
Of sweetest rhyme;
Thy heart was a river
Without a main;
Would I had loved thee never,

But fairest, coldest wonder !

Thy glorious clay
Lieth the green sod under—Alas the day!
And it boots not to remember
Thy disdain—
To quicken love's pale ember,
Florence Vane. The lilies of the valley

By young graves weep,
The pansies love todally
Where maidens sleep;
May thy bloom, in beauty vying,
Never wane
Where thine earthly part is lying,
Florence Vane!

To her frequent questions regarding his absence, Grace could give no satisfactory information, until one evening after her return from the city, she sent for Ruth to tell her that a paper had been re ceived by a friend, and relative of Falcon's in town, in which his marriage with a cousin in New Orleans was announced. The palor that spread over Ruth's face did not escape the quick eye of Grace, though the moment after, Ruth thought that it was another of the petty tales her cousin was so fond o fabricating. "How did you know you were deceived? she asked, at length. "I came here, you know, one evening, and when you came in, looking so sad, before was aware of what I did, you remember I took your hand and asked the cause. Ruth drew her hand from his and moved farther off. Again a triumphant smile danced in Falcon's eye, but unheeding the movement she made, he went on: "I reproached myself for my weakness, but I believed you were engaged, and I was too honorable interfere with the engagement of another; besides I well knew that if you were engaged, nothing that I could say, would influence you in my favor. Lee was fast rising in his profession; was an eloquent and able speaker, yet his wife took no pride in his progress, and in vain did Ruth try to inspire her with some interest in his pursuits. Lee was to deliver an address, on an occasion that he knew would tax all she did not, like a great many romantic nis powers, which he had ably prepared. On the appointed day all were gathered to hear him, in the large public hall. When he first rose to speak he saw where his wife sat, but a great deal of poetry, and everything was in the excitement of speaking, his eye did not wander toward her. An intelligent writer in the train of the Utah An intelligent writer in the train of the Utah Peace Commissioners, states that the system of buying and selling Indian women is carried on all along the route across the plains, among the traders and frontiersmen, as a regular established practice. Almost every white man along this route has an Indian concubine purchased, in the case of young and beautiful squaws, at as high price as three or four horses, though old and ugly ones may be had at a much less cost. Once sold to the white men, her Indian relatives renounce all further interests in her, and not merely her person, but her life is at the disposal of her owner. When a white man gets tired of his slavewife, he ships her off and gets another. The children of these unions are totally neglected by the fathers, and grow up as they may, under the care of the mothers. At all the forts along the route, the young officers, settlers, and all who can afford it, keep their squaws.

CLESTIAL PHENOMENON NEAR UTICA.—At about eight o'clock on Saturday evening, during a perfect deluge of rain, there occurred one of the most beautiful celestial phenomena we have ever witnessed. The heavens were completely overcast with clouds, yet from the horizon to the zenith there appeared one expansive sheet of pink of a most delicate and splendid tint. The hue was deeper in some parts than in others, yet it extended over the whole visible heavens, and was of so brilliant a character that by its reflection the water running through the gutters, looked like streams of blood. Heaven's artillery had celebrated the Fourth during pretty much the whole brated the Fourth during pretty much the whole day, and in this phenomenon we had the fire works, far beyond the skill of the most ingenious pyrotechnist.—Utica (N. Mr. Muruage, Spanish Secretary of Legation, who, it will be remembered, had a difficulty about two months ago with Mr. Corcoran, the banker, about a love affair with Corcoran's daughter, yesterday took satisfaction for the insult he believed he had received, by throwing his glove in Corcoran's face. The facts are, Mr. Corcoran objected to the attentions of Muruaga to his daughter. Meeting on the street about two months ago, such language was used that Mr. Muruaga felt bound. language was used that Mr. Muruaga felt bound to challenge Mr. Corcoran. During several days pending the challenge, Miss Corcoran, it is said, n her anxiety to prevent a collision, and hoping prevent it by influencing Muruaga, she request d an interview.

During the interview in Corcoran's house, ser vants, who it appears, were watching, informed their master of Muruaga's presence. Corcoran, accompanied by Senator Bright and the servants, jected Muruaga from the house, he and the ser-rants handling very roughly and wounding the Secretary. Upon this Corcoran refused Murua-ga's challenge, upon the ground of his unwar-rantable presence on his (Corcoran's) premises. Muruaga, feeling the sting of wounded honor, applied to his government for conge, for the pur-pose of obtaining satisfaction without compro-mising the legation. Another affair of insult and honor occurred on Saturday between Hon. Mr. Scott, of California, and Dr. Ogden, of the same State. Scott was at Kirkwood House when Dr. Ogden came into the office of the hotel. Mr. Scott was talking with several gentlemen, when some offensive remarks were made by Dr. Ogden. Scott told Ogden he had insulted him three times during the conversation. He asked him to stand up. When asked for what purpose, Scott replied that he would not strike a man sitting down. Ogden got up and Scott knocked him down or back into his chair. orden drew his knife and threatened to attack scott with it, who was unarmed, but did not.

There were altogether about 150 women at the convention in the "reform" dress, and 54 names were added to the roll of membership. Mrs. Lydia A. In the official report of the proceedings published in the The Sybil, the organ of the Association, we find little that is calculated to interest the general reader, inasmuch as the speeches are imporfactly reported. Mr. Babacok apprecade the perfectly reported. Mr. Babcock expressed the opinion that long skirts were the most graceful and beautiful style for woman. Prof. Brockett, of highest offices his State could give. Everythe New York Central College, spoke very force bly in favor of shortening the skirt an inch every year, till there should be no skirts at all, rather than return to long robes again. Several women urged Mr. Babcock to try the practical effect of his ideal of grace and beauty, by wearing long skirts only one year, and to relate his then opinion at the next Annual Dress Reform Convention; a suggestion which he manifested no intention of following. to write from Florence, Nebraska, that Garret Smith sent a private letter, expressing his sympathy with the spirit and objects of the convention. Mr. Giles C. Jackson took the pains "Abstract rights have but a nominal value when of practicably available. The right to life withnot practicably available. The right to life without the power to live, is a shadow without a suba speculative phantasy."

Miss (we presume) Ellen Read, hirsute Corresponding Secretary of the "Aurora (Ill.) Dress Reform Association," numbering, by her own account, "several" members, begs the members of the Convention to bear in mind that "Their influence, circling humanity, and extending through time and eternity, is incalculable and philanthropy, justice, and all that allies them to the universe of mind and matter, cries aloud in trumpet tones that it ought not to be swayed by perverted approbativeness—by 'they say.'' Prof. Azariah Smith, of Kishacoquillos, Ps. says that "As the calyx conforms to the nature and growth of the living principle of the flower—at once a type of the tender blossom and a protection to it—so should the outer appearance of woman, as of man, be harmonious with the inner life, with kindly office fostering the buds of truth, virtue, and love, whose sacred influence fills earth with fragrance, and promises the beautiful unfolding of the immortal flower."

The inference is, that becoming a bloomer is "fostering the buds," etc. But Prof. Smith is unfortunated by the buds," etc. fortunate in his quotations. Thus he attempts to convert Tennyson to Bloomerism by the following

In the year 1800, the Vienna newspapers contained the following announcement: Maria Ann Helen, the wife of a poor linen weav

She had at her last confinement three children, one living and two dead. Her husband was a twin, she herself one of four. Her mother had produced 23 children, and died during a confinement with twins. The greatest number of children ever produced at one birth appears to have been six, all of whom were boys, and all dead. The Prince of Wales.—A late item of English gossip relates to the Prince of Wales, who, although only 17 years old, bids fair to become a worthy successor to the last Prince of Wales—the very fast George IV. The Prince, it is reported, to the horror of his mother, the Queen, has been detected in an intrigue with one of the ladies-inwaiting to her Majesty. The result was the immediate sending of the precocious youth on a viait of penitence into Ireland, and the countermanding the order for a separate establishment for his Young Royal Highness for the present.

MOUND CITY AND CAIRO .- We have always had a sort of penchant for Cairo, because, may be, the "fellers" down there appeared to be a free-and-easy set, who took things as they turned up, and easy set, who took things as they turned up, and put the best face upon the worst case. Yet the recent flood has been too much for them, as it not only drowned the town, but considerably soiled and riled its people, or else they would not have so completely lost their temper as to abuse us, the reporter of the Courier—their very best friend.—If, in the natural course of human events, and the overflow of the big river, Cairo has fallen and Mound City has risen, can we help it? We will not pause for a reply, but out of their own mouths convict them of the very sin they accuse us. Here it is in the following extracts from the Cairo correspondent of the Saint Louis Republican:

Mound City is not the "depot" of the Illinois Central, but a stopping place, whence passengers are ferried to Cairo. Steamboats and steamboat men still keep their "head quarters" at Cairo, as formerly. If "Charley" would try to tell the truth occasionally, it might help his digastion. ON MANHOOD, AND ITS PREMATURE DECLINE.—Just published, gratis, the 20th Thousand:
A few Words on the Rational Treatment, without Medicine, of Spermatorrhea or Local Weakness, Nocturnal Emissions, Genital and Nervous Deblity, Impotency, and Impediments to Marrisage generally, by
B. DE LANEY, M. D.
The important fact that the many alarming complaints, originating in the imprudence and solitude of youth, may be easily removed without manician, is in this small tract, clearly demonstrated; and the entirely new and highly successful treatment, as adopted by the Author, fully explained, by means of which every one is enabled to cure HIMBELS perfectly and at the least possible cost, thereby avoiding all the advertised nostrums of the day. of the day.

Sent to any address, gratis and post free in a sealed envelope, by remitting (post paid) two postage stamps to Dr. B. DE LANEY, SS East Sist street, New York City.

SPEER'S WEATHER STRIP LOCK.

THE subscribers beg leave to inform builders and others, that they have purchased at a high price the right for Kentucky of "SPEER'S WEATHER STRIP LOCK," an article which has only to be seen to commend itself to architects and builders. It is very simple in its operation, cannot get out of order, is a perfect weather and dust guard, is secure against the operations of burglars, prevents all noise by the wind and slamming, and is cheaper and better for French windows than any article yet invented.

We now offer the right for every county in Kentucky, except Jefferson, which we reserve for ourselves, for sale on such liberal terms as must make it a profitable investment.
